A dear, dear pal of mine is having a milestone 40th BD and wants to do brunch in DTLA ON 7/26. She's a hip foodie. I was tasked with finding a location that will knock her socks off. 25 women who can do this with their eyes closed have asked me to pick a place since she's my best pal.

My thoughts are: double YIKES, SO... I can't think of a better group of folks to ask for Sunday brunch dining Advice from. Can any of you recommend some places and I'll call to set up?? Thanks in advance!!
